This and That

Good Morning,

Wow, there are only 4 weeks left of school; the year has flown by. It will be a busy, but fun May. I want to remind you about some important dates that are coming up this month.

May 6 - School Skate Day (this is a school day)

May 9 - 20 - MAP Testing

May 25 - Spring Concert

May 27 - Skip Up Day

We also have our 5th-8th graders going on their outdoor education field trips. All of these events will be a great way to end our school year.

Ashley Benson is also planning a fun end of year party on June 2nd. If you are available to help, please reach out to her and offer her some of your time. Planning and organizing a party for the entire school is not easy and Ashley always appreciates any help our parents can give.

Lastly, next week we will begin taking our last MAP Tests for the school year. The kids have done a great job so far, please encourage them to do their best and end the year on a super positive note.

Have a great week!

Blessings,

Mrs. Bartsch
